

Our History Together

2-12-08

*I'm sitting here all depressed
I think my dad's putting me to the test
I guess he'll find out soon enough
That life and love is tough
He said he didn't want me
I guess one day he'll see
Such a loving parent I will be
Unlike him I will care
And leaving my children I would never dare
He does nothing but doubt me
I guess he doesn't see what I see
One time in the middle of the night
He told me to leave because we had a stupid fight
He used to beat me when I was small
All I had to do is make one call
I don't know what else to do
Other than run away from you
Through thick and thin your never there
I guess that proves you don't care
Through all those years all I heard were lies
And now I'm saying my good-byes*

Casey Hollowell